Jaffa, le 22 July 1920

Dear Stuart:

I'm in a Jew city all right now. That is my only objection to it, but it surely makes me sick to see whiskered Abrahams with little desks again. I arrived here at 2 P.M. on the U.S.S. torpedo boat - destroyer John D. Edwards, which left Beirut at 5 this morning. We had a fine sail down the coast, & were treated like princes. There were three of us, a British officer, a French Y.M.C.A. girl who is in the Relief work at Beirut, & I. We were all sick, & haven't got over it yet. The British here didn't want to let me land, as my passport says "Egypt" & not Palestine.

HOPEL BALEZINS

In Aleppo on July 17th I got a letter from home dated away back in December, enclosing a duplicate of the check Dad sent me, also a letter of yours to Dad about the same time. This had been kept in the safe for me.

I have plenty of money as Dr. Lambert raised my salary twice, so I'll have some left over when I get to New York.

I don't like the idea of teaching again. It is too much strain when you want to study. However I don't see how to get out of it. I don't like it if I can come back to Turkey.

I am sick of traveling & wish I was back in Marash. I hate the idea of having to

However, I'm on shore & expect to go to Jerusalem tomorrow.

Commander Sharpe of the destroyer had me write an account of the Marash trouble & the present situation, for Admiral Bristol. The consuls in Aleppo & Beirut give me a pain. They don't take any interest at all in the trouble of Armenians in Marash.

The French are trying to get into more trouble. I hear they are going to try to capture Damascus & Aleppo both. They couldn't hold Marash, so are trying something else.

This city Jaffa is hot. What happened here anyway? Did Zohab sail from here & fight?

cross the Atlantic & Mediterranean both. There is no telling when I will be able to get a boat for N. Y. from Naples, but I'll do my best to be home Sept. 20th. My trunk probably won't be there till a month or so later. There is so much red tape to traveling just now, especially here, on account of a quarantine against bubonic plague, I was vaccinated two days ago for it, but have to report three times to the health department in Jerusalem.
Hard is life in this crazy Asia.
Hope to see you in Darby
after a couple of months if all goes well. Lots of good wishes & love from Stanley,
