

My Dear Monsignor Pascal:

Thank you for your ~~note~~ brief note about the manuscript I sent you. ~~I am still to read~~ Within another week I expect to be ~~able~~ ready to submit my ~~own~~ paper to a publisher, for the account is complete up to the end of the 1920 revolt in Marsek. I am still troubled about ~~how~~ the proper way to speak of you in the various episodes; whether it should be "the Abbot Pascal, or Monsignor Pascal, Pere Pascal, ~~or the~~. According to my English dictionary an Abbot is the head of a monastery, & Monsignor is a prelate! I would like to have a short designation, so that the reader may remember ^{from one} episode to another in different parts of the book, ~~that~~ but I do not want to ~~do with the entire title "The Abbot, Pere,~~

the name

Raphael / Pere / Abbot / Pascal /
Monsieur / Marsekian.

use an improper term.

Small note for Pascal: Mr. de la